

PIRATES TAKE SECOND TO EVEN SERIES COUNTY PLANS $3000,000 ROAD BUILDING PROGRAM

COMMISSIONERS AND HIGHWAY DIRECTOR MAP PAVING PROJECT

Thirty Six Miles To Be Built—State and Federal Aid Given

A gigantic road construction program for the year 1926 has been outlined by Greene County Commissioners in conjunction with the state highway department entailing an expenditure of approximately $300,000 in county, state and federal funds, it is announced.

Every state road in the county will be taken over by the state and worked by the state highway department next year.

Final plans for the mammoth construction project were completed at a conference of commissioners with Director of Highways G. F. Schlesinger, former Xenian, in Columbus, Monday.

Through efforts of members of the board and co-operation of officials of the state highway department, Greene County may boast next year of one of the best paved road systems of any county of like population and tax duplicate in the state, it is said.

A total of thirty-six miles of inter-county highway and federal roads will be under construction in the county next year, according to present plans. Eleven miles of federal roads and twenty-one miles of state roads will be improved and it is expected work of constructing and maintaining some of these roads will be started this winter.

Contract for the proposed remodeling of the Cincinnati-Columbus Pike, known as the Inter-County Highway No. 6, a main market road, from the Xenia corporation line to the Warren County line, a distance of eight and one-half miles, will be awarded some time within the next four months. A hearing will be held soon on the compensation of abutting property owners for damages.

State aid amounting to $73,000 in inter-county highway money has been set aside this week by the state highway department as the state's share of the proposed improvement of the Xenia and Fairfield Pike.

The Fairfield Pike is to be remodeled into a hard surface road from the Byron cross road to the C. C. and St. L. Railroad in Osborn. A total distance of eight and one-half miles. State aid was first furnished for construction of but half the road and it is now certain the entire road will be improved.

Inter-County Highway No. 60, Dayton and Springfield Pike, is to be repaved for a distance of two and one-half miles from the Fairfield corporation line north to the Clark County line, Valley Pike, No. 445, connecting Montgomery and Clark counties. These roads are to be graveled and given surface treatment. Both are inter-county highway roads in Bath Township.

The last inter-county highway to be repaved is state route No. 473, Hillsboro and Toledo Pike, extending from the Clinton County line through Bowersville to the Jamestown village line, and from Cedarville through Clinton to the Clark County line, a total of eleven and one-half miles. A portion of the road from Jamestown to Cedarville is in first class condition and will be left untouched. The remaining distance will be graveled and re-surfaced it is announced.

Cost of constructing the twenty-one miles of state roads is to be shared equally by the county and state on a fifty-fifty basis. One-half of the total cost of remodeling the Cincinnati Pike and Fairfield Pike into hard top roads, will be taken care of by state and federal funds.

The remaining fifty per cent of the cost will be divided by the county, the townships through which the pikes pass and abutting property owners, on a graduated scale of 30 per cent by the county, 15 per cent by the townships and 5 per cent by land holders.

Total expense of graveled the several state roads in the county will be shared equally by the state and county.

Greene County is believed to be unusually fortunate in obtaining such a great amount of state and federal financial backing for this unprecedented construction project, and credit is being given County Commissioners for development of the program.

Chaisty Mathewson Called Out By The Great Umpire

"Big Six," Idol of Baseball, Loses Seven Year Fight Against White Plague—Dies as Baseball Ushers
In a New Series

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Christy Mathewson, idol of the baseball fans over, has lost his seven year fight against the White Plague.

He died at 11 o'clock last night at his home here just a few hours after the world's series had opened in Pittsburgh.

Death of "Big Six" was unexpected although he had been in poor health all summer. Tubercular pneumonia, brought on the end.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning in Lewiston, Pa., according to tentative plans. The body will be taken from here tonight.

Mathewson's gallant battle with tuberculosis had held public sympathy ever since he contracted the malady while serving as a Captain in the army gas service during the world war. The disease developed slowly and it was not until 1920 that he was forced to retire as coach of the New York Giants, the club with which he won fame as a pitcher.

For three years he remained secluded at his resort and it was believed he had recovered his health. He returned to baseball as president and part-owner of the Boston Braves in 1923.

On the training trip south last spring, Mathewson suffered a cold, forcing his return here. Throughout the summer, rumors reached his friends that he would be able to combat his disease for only a few months longer, but these were denied by the family and physicians. Mrs. Mathewson was the only person at the bedside when he died. A son, Christopher, Jr., was away at college.

Mathewson's 45 years were devoted to sport. As a youngster at Factoryville, Pa., where he was born August 12, 1880, he was a leader on diamond and gridiron. When the scene shifted to Keystone Academy and Bucknell University he continued a star at baseball and football.

In 1900 the big pitcher joined the Giants but was "farmed" to the Virginia League for experience. At the end of the season he was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds and later went back to the Giants in a trade for the veteran Amos Rusie. His first year as a major league hurler, found him winning twenty games and losing 16. His successes continued with each passing season. Only twice in fifteen years did he fail to win at least half of his games.

The banner years in his career were 1908 when he won 27 games and lost eleven for a percentage of .771 and 1909 when he won 25 and lost six for a percentage of .806.

The "Big Six" won thirty games in three successive seasons, 1903-5, an astounding record. He pitched two no-hit games and is believed to have made a world's record when in a game with Philadelphia he pitched only 67 balls, less than eight balls an inning.

Control, was the secret of Mathewson's mound success.

He appeared in four world's series, winning five, losing the same number and tying one. His most sensational post-season work was done in the New York-Philadelphia series of 1904 when he won each of his three starts. Each victory was a shutout.

He entered the army when the United States declared war and was made a captain in the gas service. It was then he contracted the malady which brought his death.

COLONEL MITCHELL

DEFIES NAVY BOARD
AND QUILTS HEARING

"Storm Center" Ignores
Subpoena—Refuses
To Testify

Washington, Oct. 8.—Col. William Mitchell, storm center of aviation investigating the Shenandoah disaster when it served him with a formal subpoena to testify today.

Mitchell, on advice of his counsel, Rep. Frank Reid, Republican of Illinois, openly defied the committee, refused to recognize the subpoena issued and left the navy building where the hearing was being held.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Col. "Billy" Mitchell, who precipitated the national air defense controversy, defied the naval board of inquiry investigating the Shenandoah disaster when it called him before it today to testify concerning his statement that the collapse of the dirigible should have been avoided.

Mitchell, on advice of his special counsel, Representative Frank Reid, Illinois, Republican, bluntly refused to answer any questions of Admiral Hilarly P. Jones, head of the board and the board immediately went into executive session to determine their next action.

In the executive session the board decided to summon the Judge Advocate General from the army and navy to advise with them on the legality of any punitive steps they might take against Mitchell.

Many Pittsburgh partisans think that he cannot be so good in his next start and that Meadows will surely win his next game but there is no valid reason to figure that the Senators will blow up after such an encouraging start.

Every one expected that the Pirates would suffer from nerves in the opening game but the Senators were more unsteady. Peck, the old reliable shortstop of the Washington Club went to the extreme of making a wild throw for the only error of the game and the whole club was wobbly at the start.

The vaunted running attack of the Pirates was stopped almost cold and it was Bluege, the Washington third baseman, who did the only real base-running of the game.

The Pirates did steal two bases but they didn't mean anything. Heavy skies early today made the prospects look well for Coveleskie who relies upon spit ball.

The two teams, fans and newspaper men will leave on special trains tonight for Washington where the third game is to be played tomorrow.

MAY EXHUME BODIES IN PROBE OF DEATH

OF SPRINGFIELD GIRL BY POISONING

Springfield, O., Oct. 8.—Bodies may be exhumed and examined today as a result of the mysterious death of Vesta Strome, 14, who died suddenly Saturday from poisoning.

While Mrs. Birdie Strome, the girl's step-mother was held for further questioning, Coroner Schaefer indicated the bodies of Mrs. Strome's first husband, George Frock and of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Foulder, would be exhumed.

Frock died September 14, 1922 after being suddenly stricken. At death this body became swollen and bloated.

SENATORS ACHIEVE ADVANTAGE BY WIN IN FIRST CONTEST

Harris Can Gamble Now
With Pitchers Says
"Bud" Farrell

By HENRY L. FARRELL

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 8.—With the first game tied up and tucked away in the bag, the Washington Senators, world's champions of 1924, had a tremendous advantage when they went into the second game of the world's series against the Pittsburgh Pirates here today.

The moral advantage that the American League Champions gained in downing the younger National League Club in the first, and most important game was even more than the mathematical points derived. The first victory not only inspired the veterans but it gave them a margin for Bucky Harris to work on.

Harris can gamble now with his pitchers and he will gamble. Stanley Coveleskie, the veteran spit baller, was scheduled to pitch the second game today for the Senators.

World Series Standing

Each league's share $15,365.87.

Harris said that he was in shape to start and that Marberry, the best relief pitcher in baseball would be ready to jump in if anything happened.

The Polo has been worked hard all season and his back has been bothering him but he said today that he was ready to go and anxious to get the call.

Vic Aldridge, the former Chicago star, was booked to work for the Pirates. He warmed up for a few minutes before yesterday's game and Bill McKechnie, manager of the Pirates apparently say that he was going good. Johnny Morrison and Tom Sheehan were held in reserve. Kremer or Emil Yde will get the call in Washington tomorrow, with Dutch Reuther working for the Senators.

There was nothing to the opening game but Walter Johnson, "When the 'Big Train' is right you might just as well sit down and count them as he knocks them off," veteran baseball men agreed.

The Pirates could not hit Johnson when hits meant something and the Senators hit Lee Meadows just enough to win the ball game. Some smart baseball men blamed Meadows for his own defeat, because he didn't work on Sam Rice. He had two strikes and a ball on Rice in the fifth inning when he threw him a fast ball. Rice connected with the end of his bat and knocked in two runs that clinched the game.

Meadows pitched a good game and the Pirates blamed their defeat on bad luck.

Johnson looked so good and worked so easily that he can be used in at least one more game of the series and perhaps two.

Many Pittsburgh partisans think that he cannot be so good in his next start and that Meadows will surely win his next game but there is no valid reason to figure that the Senators will blow up after such an encouraging start.

Coroner Schaefer said. Previously Frock had experienced poor health but of a different nature than the illness which caused his death according to Schaefer.

Mrs. Strome was arrested Tuesday following an inquest which returned a verdict of death "by poisoning" in the death of her step-daughter. She has steadfastly maintained she knows nothing of the circumstances surrounding the case.

Mrs. Strome's sister-in-law also died under mysterious circumstances, according to Schaefer and her body may be ordered exhumed.

Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Oct. 8.—Cuyler, hard hitting outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates, established himself as a world's series hero, at least in the hearts of Pirate fans this afternoon when his homer scored Moore ahead of him in the eighth to give Pittsburgh two runs and break the one to one tie that existed from the fourth. The Pirates evened the series by winning 3 to 2.

The homer was the third of the game, as Judge scored first for Washington with a homer in the second followed by Wright's homer for the Pirates that tied the score in the fourth. Aldridge pitched himself out of a hole in the fifth when the side was retired without a run after the bases were filled with none out.

Washington suffered a severe loss in the sixth when Bluege, regular third baseman, was hit on the head by a pitched ball and forced to retire in favor of Myer. The injury is not thought serious, however.

First Inning: Washington—Wright threw Rice out at first. Harris fans.

Second Inning: Washington—Judge hit a home run into right field stands. J. Harris singled past Wright. Herries died stealing. Smith to Moore. Yde warming up. Barnhart took Bluege's high fly. Traynor threw out Peck. Grantham making a glove hand stop of the wild throw. One run, two hits, no errors. Pittsburgh—Barnhart sent a fly to Rice. Traynor out. Bluege to Judge. Wright crashed a single to right and went to second on a passed ball. Grantham out. S. Harris to Judge. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning: Washington—Ruel struck out. Coveleskie fanned. Rice sliced a line single to center. Rice takes second on a balk by Aldridge. Wright throws out S. Harris at first. No runs, one hit, no errors. Pittsburgh—Smith singled to left. Aldridge forced Smith at second. Moore went out on strikes. Carey singled to right. Aldridge stopping at second. Cuyler forced Carey. Peck to S. Harris. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning: Washington—Wright made a beautiful stop of Goslin's smash, getting him at first. Barnhart robbed Judge of a double by a running catch. J. Harris singled off "Pie" Traynor's glove. Cuyler took Bluege's long fly. No runs, one hit, no errors. Pittsburgh—Barnhart drove a high fly to Rice. Traynor was thrown out by Peck at first. Wright connected for a home run into the right field stands. Grantham fouled to Ruel. One run, one hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning: Washington—Peck singled over Wright's head. Ruel singled to center. Peck taking second. Yde again begins to warm up. Aldridge took Coveleskie's bunt throwing to third to force Peck. Rice grounded to Aldridge, who threw to Smith catching Peck at home. S. Harris forced Ruel. Wright to Smith. Goslin out to Grantham unassisted. No runs, two hits, no errors. Pittsburgh—Smith called out on strikes. Aldridge rolled to Peck. Peck tossed Moore out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning: Washington—Judge hoisted to Carey. Carey came in fast for J. Harris' high fly. Bluege was "bounced" by a fast ball. He fell prostrate to the ground. Myer runs for Bluege. Myer caught trying to steal second. Smith to Wright. No runs, no hits, no errors. Pittsburgh—Myers goes to third base for Washington. Carey beat out a bunt. Cuyler sacrificed Carey to second. Peck threw out Barnhart. Carey going to third. Traynor strolled. Wright forced Traynor at second. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Seventh Inning: Washington—Doctors report Bluege not badly hurt. Wright threw out Peck at first. Ruel lined to Barnhart. Traynor threw out Coveleskie. No runs, no hits, no errors. Pittsburgh—S. Harris made easy work of Grantham's roller. Judge threw Smith out at first. Aldridge popped to Peck. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning: Washington—Rice singled over second. S. Harris sacrificed. Grantham to Moore. Rice taking second. Goslin out. Aldridge to Grantham. Rice takes third. Judge filed to Moore. No runs, one hit, no errors. Pittsburgh—Peck juggled Moore's roller allowed the batter to reach first. On hit and run play. Carey was out at first. Moore reaching second. Cuyler knocked a home run into the right field stands scoring Moore ahead of him. Barnhart singled past Peck. Peck fumbled Traynor's grounder and both runners were safe. Wright fouled out to Myer. Ruel made a wonderful catch of Grantham's foul. Two runs, two hits, two errors.

Ninth Inning: Washington—J. Harris walked. McNeely runs for L. Harris. Myer singled to left. McNeely stopping at second. "Babe" Adams is warming up for Pittsburgh. Peck walked. Veach, batting for Ruel, shot a sacrifice fly to Carey. McNeely scoring after the catch. Myer holds second. Reuther batting for Coveleskie. fanned. Rice out. One run, one hit, no errors.

The lineup:
Washington—Rice, cf; S. Harris, 2b; Goslin 1b; Judge 1b; J. Harris rf; Bluege 3b; Peck ss; Ruel c; Coveleskie p.

Pittsburgh—Moore 2b; Carey cf; Cuyler rf; Barnhart lf; Traynor 3b; Wright ss; Grantham 1b; Smith c; Aldridge p.

AVIATOR KILLED IN AIRPLANE CRASH AT LONG ISLAND RACES

Passenger Loses Life—Pilot Injured But Will Recover

Mitchell Field, L. I., Oct. 8.—One aviator was killed and a second seriously injured in a crash today, during the first event of the international races held here.

They are Clarence Chamberlain, pilot and Lawrence Buranelli, passenger in the machine. The crash occurred several miles away from the judges stand and first reports were that both men were killed. It was later established that Buranelli was killed. He died in the wreckage of the machine a few minutes after the crash.

Chamberlain was brought to Mitchell Field Hospital immediately and placed on the operating table. His right leg was fractured, his scalp lacerated and he received a concussion of the brain.

Major I. B. March, flight surgeon in charge, said Chamberlain would probably recover.

The machine crashed so far from the field that the accident was not witnessed by spectators, and the first report was given by telephone.

Their plane, a Bellanca De-3 monoplane, fell one-half mile south of the flying field.

Buranelli was a brother of Vincent Buranelli designer of the Remington-Buranelli Air Transport.

TALK ON INDIA IS GIVEN AT WOMEN'S CLUB

Opening the way for a comprehensive study of a difficult subject, India, members of the Junior Woman's Club were fortunate in having as the speaker for their first meeting of the year, Professor M. N. Chatterje, of the social science department of Antioch College.

The meeting, in the nature of a tea, was held at the spacious home of Mrs. J. D. Steele, North Galloway Street. Club members unrolled their "magic carpet" to India and as an introduction to the illustrious subject, Professor Chatterje, delivered a most charming talk.

Professor Chatterje is a native of India and is a member of the Brahmin caste. He was educated at Oxford, England and has been in this country several years.

He was able to give an insight into the different phases of life in India and spoke of the various creeds and philosophies. He described the caste system and told of Hinduism as a social creed. Members of the club were grateful to the speaker for bringing a closer view of the custom of the Indian country.

Professor Chatterje complimented the club for taking up India as a year's study and said that the study was being approached properly. Preceding his talk, Mrs. W. H. McGervey, club member, sang two Indian melodies, "Far, Far Away Among the Desert Sands," and "How Many a Lonely Caravan."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Steele after Professor Chatterje's talk.

DELPHIAN CHAPTER HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Enthusiastic at the prospect of opening another year of work, twenty-one members of the Xenia Delphian chapter held the first meeting at the Shawnee Tea Shoppe, Tuesday evening.

The meeting opened with dinner at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Carl O. Nybladh, president of the chapter, presided and together with Mrs. Winifred Armstrong, gave a report of the Delphian meeting held in Columbus recently.

Members took part in a review of Egypt, the subject studied last winter and Mrs. A. S. Frazer described the topography of Egypt, "the gift of the Nile." Mrs. Fred Anderson gave intimate descriptions of the people of Egypt, the various castes and customs, while Mrs. Ray Cox told of the political system and development of the government.

A first-hand description of the country was given by Miss Mary Wilgus, who visited Egypt for several months, last year. All of the phases were interestingly handled and were well received.

Mrs. Armstrong announced the opening of a current event department of the club meetings and assigned various subjects to the members.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Nybladh, North King Street.

DR. MCCHESNEY IS D. A. R. SPEAKER TUESDAY

Dr. W. R. McChesney, president of Cedarville College, addressed members of Lagonda Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Monday afternoon at the B. B. Inn, South Charleston, O., taking as his topic, "The Early Days and Responsibilities of the Daughters of the American Revolution."

Commencing with an outline of the organization, Dr. McChesney declared the D. A. R. is a nationwide organization with a sacred heritage to maintain. He traced the history of the Revolutionary War and men and women who supported it, explaining the cause they espoused, and the sacrifices and sufferings they endured. He also mentioned the glorious achievement founders of this country brought to the republic.

Closing his talk, Dr. McChesney exhorted members of the chapter to perpetuate institutions they founded and fathers and mothers preserved and cherished, namely the home, the schools, industries and government, and lastly, religious freedom.

SURPRISE PARTY TUESDAY EVENING

A group of young people enjoyed a delightful surprise party, honoring Miss Louise Mangan at her home on Home Avenue, Tuesday evening. The time was spent with games and stories, and later in the evening refreshments were served.

Those who attended were: the Misses Lena LeValley, Mary Tuhey, Frances Tuhey, Alma Adams, Katherine Mangan, Mildred Ellen Fuller, and Charles Thompson, Charles Mangan, Jack Adams, Charles LeValley and the hostess, Miss Louise Mangan.

FIRST U. P. SOCIETY ENTERTAINS TUESDAY

Members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First United Presbyterian church were entertained by the Young Ladies' Missionary Society at a handsomely appointed dinner and program at the church Tuesday evening.

Dinner was served in the basement where the tables were decorated with candles and bouquets of bright-hued flowers. Hallowe'en tokens were also used. A two-course dinner was served.

The thank offering program was held in the Sunday School room which was decorated with a profusion of beautiful Fall flowers. The most interesting feature of the program was a play, "Tired of Missions" in four scenes and six acts, in which seventeen young women took part.

A duet by Mrs. Byford James and Miss Lillie McCoy and a song by a young girls' quartette, were enjoyed. A business meeting was held after the program.

FORMER XENIAN'S MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

CASH DONATIONS GOTTEN BY MAIL MEN

Detroit, Oct. 8.—Postal authorities here puzzled today at persistence of a careless philanthropist who has tucked into Detroit mail boxes nearly one hundred poorly addressed, unsealed envelopes containing cash donations ranging from $1 to $20 each.

While some of the addresses have been deciphered it is said most of the envelopes will find their way to the deadletter office.

The motive for the "cash flood" is unknown.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE.

THE following short editorial from the current issue of Collier's Weekly is a message of importance to every man and woman in America:

I am disgusted with politics: You hear this phrase everywhere at election time.

Year after year those who are too busy to vote or to take any active part in the business of government stand aloof and shout their disgust.

They think they prove their own superiority by expressing contempt for the methods and words of those running for office.

There was never a greater fallacy. If politics is bad, make it better. If the bosses are unworthy, supplant them. If candidates do not represent the sound citizenship, bring out better men and women.

Politics is nothing but public business. We must have politics if we are going to have popular government. In this land of universal suffrage no man or woman has the right to stand aloof and complain.

Government, good and bad, is the product of politics and in the long run we get the kind of government we deserve. Inefficiency and corruption in office are reflections of the apathy or the ineffectiveness of the voters.

So if you don't like the way politicians are conducting your affairs step right into the ring and get the feel of the fight.

Good men and women battled and sacrificed during long generations to give you this right. Half the wars in history were fought for no other end.

If we show half the zeal in using the vote which our predecessors evinced in winning it for us, there will be small ground for complaint on the part of any man.

Get into the struggle or else save your disgust for yourself. The politician doesn't deserve it and he would not mind it if he did.

HEALTH TALK ENJOYED BY P. H. S. STUDENTS.

A VERY interesting lecture was given by Mrs. Della Hill Snodgrass, D. N., of Xenia, Ohio, in the auditorium, Thursday, immediately following the noon session.

Mrs. Snodgrass, who is a State Lecturer and Chairman of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, gave very good information concerning the value of finding the causes of ill health.

She described the adenoids, tonsils and goiter, the three very common diseases among young people, all three of which are very dangerous to the health of every boy and girl of America. She also told how to avoid these and urged every pupil to look after his or her symptoms at once.

In the World War she was one of the leading nurses and at times had fifty or more boys to care for, and in this way she found that the ones who had weak lungs were generally addicted to the habit of smoking.

Another interesting subject she told of, was the relieving of coughs in the war during the "flu." She told how she heated plates, irons and hot water bottles, placing them between the shoulders and immediately relieving the cough.

A test was given to everyone in school, each one was to pinch the muscle on the arm and hold it for a few minutes to see if he were in perfect health. If the muscle returned to the skin gradually it showed the person's health was poor.

Everyone who heard this lecture should be largely benefited and learn to observe those laws of health which will help the next generation to be more healthy.

A MILLION DOLLAR SMILE.

MRS. COOLIDGE'S smile has become famous on the North shore of Massachusetts where she spent the summer. It is referred to as her "million dollar smile." She seems to have a kind of infectious laugh which makes her personality fascinating and magnetic.

Not many of us can have a million dollar smile, and we might use it too often if we had it. Some people smile so much that it is liability instead of an asset. Yet there are many who have made their way in business and politics by the power of their smiling countenance.

This gives them an appearance of cordiality. It seems to express interest in the people they meet. If people would forget themselves a little more, thaw out more frequently, and show some pleasure in their faces when they greet the world, they might acquire a smile that would be a precious asset to them.

ARTISTS OF SORROW
There is a skill of which men
Which critics seek to praise
A touch acquired by earnest men
Through tedious nights and days

It takes long years to understand
The beautiful and true,
Who would the master's skill command
Much drudgery must do.

And yet the noblest art of man
But little practice needs,
For even the humblest people can

Perform the kindest deeds

The skill of sympathy is seen
By every sorrowing eye,
It moves with faith and trust serene
The falling tears to dry.

Not every friend can comfort give
In anguish and despair,
Yet some there are who seem to live
Another's grief to share.

Their hands are gentle and their speech
Is comforting to hear,
We feel that help's within our reach
Whenever they are near.

Though humble people they may be
And outwardly but plain,
They have that skill of sympathy
Which soothes and softens pain.

A "CIRCUS PARTY" FOR CHILDREN

Children will enjoy the following inexpensive "Circus Party." Cut cardboard into the shape of a tent, for invitations, writing on one side: "Miss Mollie Smith requests the pleasure of Miss Dolly Brown's company at a Circus Party on October 15 at three o'clock at her home on Main Street." On the reverse side, with pen and ink, draw the sections of a canvas tent, printing side-show announcements on them—such as "Two-Headed Man Inside," "Wild Man," etcetera.

The little hostess may be dressed as a bare-back rider. In short, stiff skirts, or the little host as a clown. Games can be originated by anybody, but two which I have originated are the following:

Find the Clown: A small celluloid "Cupie" doll dressed in white covered with black spots, its face painted a ghastly white, is hidden by one of the children while the remaining little ones are out of the room. All hunt for it, and the successful searcher is the next to hide the doll. The warnings of "hot" and "cold," given by the child who hid the doll, may be employed—as in the old-fashioned game of "Hide the Thimble."

Dog-Ruff Contest: Some gentle dog may be, perhaps, borrowed for the party if the little hostess does not happen to possess such a pet. Each child is given colored crepe paper, scissors and glue, and told to make as pretty a stand-out ruff collar for the dog as possible (the kind of collar which clowns' dogs wear when they jump through a hoop). The child who makes the prettiest ruff is awarded as a prize a small china dog ornament or paperweight.

These games last until five o'clock, when the ordinary party refreshments are served—jam sandwiches, cocoa, cakes, candies—or, to carry out the circus note, "pink lemonade," (raspberryade) may be substituted for cocoa.

Table Decorations: For the centerpiece make a large circus tent by covering the top of a large bare, wire lamp-shade frame with crepe paper, then winding the side wires with narrow strips of the crepe paper. Sprinkle real sawdust underneath, and dress small dolls as clowns.

Gives Advice to Expectant Mothers

"I ADVISE all expectant mother to use Mother's Friend." Write Mrs. Wesley Miller, Hudson, Mich. "I have had nine children. With my first three I suffered for 24 hours. Beginning with the fourth, used Mother's Friend and was sick only 15 minutes. Since then I have had five and was only sick about 10 minutes with each." Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician and has been a positive blessing to thousands of expectant mothers for over three generations. Plain oils only penetrate the skin. But the highly refined oils and other ingredients in Mother's Friend make it penetrate through the skin to the muscles and ligaments making them soft and pliable, thus aiding the tissues to relax and adjust themselves to the changes during motherhood. The mothers who praise Mother's Friend the most are those who did not use it with their first baby but through its use with the second were able to realize its almost unbelievable results. Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and mean while write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 34 Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

WORKMAN INJURED IN GRAVEL CAVE-IN

Austin Donovan, 50 California Street, employee of the Greene County road construction gang, had the ligaments in his right leg torn and painfully bruised when a gravel bank at the Towler Road pit caved in, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Donovan, with other workmen, was loading gravel for construction work on Bellbrook Avenue, when the bank caved in. His legs were buried. Other workmen hurried to extricate him and he was removed to his home. His condition is improving.

EAST END NEWS

MRS. JAMES HARRIS
Correspondent
TEL. 91-R

Mrs. Mary Evans and Mrs. Guy Clemens received forty ladies at a 4 o'clock tea Tuesday in honor of Miss Gladys Scott. The home of Mrs. Clemens was decorated with dahlias, cosmos and golden glow. The color scheme on the bride-to-be's table was yellow and white. A large basket of golden glow centered the table. On either side were crystal candle sticks holding yellow candles. The small tables in the living room were centered with vases of pink dahlias.

A delicious three course menu was served. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. R. E. Pettiford of Springfield; Mrs. Love of New Albany, Ind.; Mesdames J. E. Greene, C. A. Colman, Bruce Greene, Gilbert Jones and Henderson of Wilberforce and Mrs. Minnie Neill of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Scott is being honored with a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Ivy Edwards in Wilmington.

Mrs. Violet Lawson, East Main Street, is among the sick.

Mrs. Ora Millon of the County Infirmary has returned from Cincinnati where she spent a month visiting friends and relatives. She was accompanied home by her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. William Wells and Mr. Lewis. They motored through.

Today's Talks

GIVERS

In my newspaper the other day I came across a brief death notice of a man that I had known for many years, stating the few enterprises in which he had been engaged.

I thought the obituary rather short and too unimportant, considering the wealth of the man and the length of time he had lived in his great city, for his name was known to millions across the land.

But then I could think of nothing of large enterprise to which he had lent his name for progress or public betterment. He was kindly, affable and most happy in personality—but neither strong nor compelling.

In another city a very quiet, unassuming man of large affairs finished his earthly tasks. Immediately the city of his adoption was thrown into sincere mourning, and across the country appeared surprising tributes of grief and regret at his passing. Nearly all of his vast fortune was willed to those who had helped him build it, and to great causes nearest his heart. He had been a powerful, silent figure in the entire nation.

In contrast, I have in my memory another man of great fame who very recently fell peacefully to sleep. He left no fortune. But his great fund of great ideas, original thinking, and accomplished good, will live in the world for decades to come.

Heads bow and tears flow when somebody goes out of this world who kept putting love and beauty and kindness back into it.

A giver of money is so much greater than a maker of money. In like manner a giver of all that grows out of the heart is much nobler and finer than he who keeps taking and gives without giving. On my way home from work the other evening I stopped to listen to a wonderful band playing in a public park. The beautiful band stand had been given to the city by a public spirited man, the music donated by another! Thousands of people listened and were made better in every way. I thought of the multitude that would go to their rest richer because of these two public benefactors. I wonder how many there are who realize that with every gift goes much of him who gives?

My Hair Was Quite Gray

My hair was gray. It was falling out. My scalp itched and dandruff appeared. A few applications of Kolor-Bak stopped the itching and dandruff. My hair soon stopped falling out and now is again its original shade. I look ten years younger.

Don't Worry about Gray Hair

This Clean, Colorless Liquid Will Restore the Original Shade

Thousands of people have quickly banished grayness and have restored the original shade to their hair with the remarkable preparation known as Kolor-Bak.

Physicians and scientists know that gray hair is hair that has ceased to receive its normal supply of coloring matter or pigment from certain tiny cells in the scalp because these cells have become inactive. No matter what the cause, it is amazing to see how the grayness disappears when Kolor-Bak is used. It is the best known substitute for the natural pigmentation. It also banishes dandruff and stops itching of the scalp and falling hair. If you are gray, Kolor-Bak is all you need to make your hair look "young" again. No need to furnish a sample of your hair—no tests to make—as this one clean, colorless liquid is effective on any gray hair. Money back instantly if Kolor-Bak is not satisfactory.

SAUER WRITES SWEETLY OF STRAW TICK; GETS ONE DISGUISED AS NICKEL CIGAR

BY MACK SAUER

Well, I see where old Father Time got to reading my articles in which I requested him to turn back in his flight, and as a result he had the clock all turned back an hour a week ago last Sunday. Now each morning when I get up I give him a rising vote of thanks.

In regard to that five cent cigar I have been maintaining this country has been in need of, Eureka! I have found it. Roy Hayward read my plea and sent me samples. I am now convinced the world has a good five cent cigar. What this country needs is a man good enough to smoke it. So that's gone up in smoke.

On Thursday morning a man was beating a carpet alongside The Gazette Building. Many persons stopped to watch him. Some say they stopped because of the unusual sight of a man working around a newspaper office. I admit I don't work. I let the ads do it.

But, speaking of the carpet, I'll lay you one that you remember how you used to scatter straw on the floor and then tack the carpet down over the straw. Can you beat it? The straw was changed each spring and fall. Now the straw is used for making imported panama hats and we don't tack carpets down today. We use rugs. The carpet tacks are being scattered along the streets and are being picked up by automobile tires.

The old cord bed strikes a responsive chord with many of us. But a good old days when they hit the hay in the evening of how they really hit the straw—a straw tick. It also was filled each spring and fall. The public soon got its fill of it and now we have guaranteed all-wool mattresses made of cotton.

The old parlor organ covered with red-backed hymnals and dust has been replaced with the player piano covered with a moritz. We have player rolls, but no old fashioned music rolls from them.

The coal oil lamp has gone out. There are no wicks to trim, nor lamp chimneys to wash today. We don't make weekly trips to the store with our coal oil can with a potato stuck on the spout any more. We use the surplus potatoes today in making potato chips. If we want a light, we press a button.

Our forefathers, when they wanted to talk with a neighbor a few miles away, hitched up a horse and drove over. Now we just call our neighbors by telephone. It takes longer to get in touch with them than it would to hitch up a horse and drive to see them, but a fellow can borrow things over the telephone, whereas he wouldn't have the nerve to do it if he had to face a fellow and ask him. Time has turned backward in its flight. We now have a good five cent cigar. The old time religion is at hand for all who will use it. The out-fashioned dance is coming back. So my mission has been accomplished.

Old-fashioned as I am, I think this is a mighty good world after all. "If you're no friend, for money, in the river you can fall. And they'll bury you for nothing—It's a good world after all."

SYNOPSIS

Bob Mannering is in jail, charged with manslaughter, the car in which he was riding having crashed into another and killed a woman. Bob's father, John Mannering, the District Attorney, declares his purpose to prosecute him. Eileen, the wife and mother, meanwhile hires other lawyers to defend the boy. Mannering is being opposed for reelection by Jerome Wallace. "Stick" Jennings, a ward healer, is managing Wallace's campaign, while E. J. Blescoe finances it.

"No," he merely nodded. Perhaps he didn't even do that. I am not certain," said the lawyer, beginning to gather up the papers before him and place them in his brief case. "There is nothing more to be done at present, Mrs. Mannering, I think. Anyway here is the jailer. Our time is up."

Eileen arose and, moving over to Bob, took hold of his hand as the officer approached. Mechanically the youth got to his feet, and as he faced her his lips began to quiver. Instantly she gathered him in her arms, and the brave smile with which she had regarded him became a pathetic grimace over his shoulder as she fought back the tears which brimmed her lids.

"Mother, you are crying; you must not," Bob protested as, withdrawing from her embrace, he gazed into her face a moment later.

"Oh, no, darling," she protested with an effort which would have deceived nobody. "That's the pen-ality of vanity—there is some mascaro in my eye." "Well, anyway, I'm all right. I'm getting along fine, getting a great rest," he declared with a sorry attempt at gaiety, which quickly faded. "There's dad, mother; it's pretty hard on the pater, this sort of thing, with him in of-ice." "Yes," she agreed, but with a final embrace she followed the jailer without another word to turn almost fiercely upon the lawyers as the door of the visitors' room closed upon them.

"We must win," she said. "Do you understand? We must win!" And so, with her thoughts dwelling upon the plight of her son, Eileen emerged from the jail just as the big car of her husband drew up at the curb. Filled with surprise, even, with suspicion, she watched it. What was it doing there? Did its presence bode ill to Bob? As she waited John Mannering descended. What was he doing there?

Suddenly Eileen was aware with a wave of feeling that he looked wan and tired—yes, dreadfully tired. Promptly she steered her heart. Why should she care? Ah, but under the strain which burdened him John might become ill, said a wee small voice within her. Let him, cried the iron in her soul; he could not prosecute Bob. But somebody else would, persisted that same voice. So, a prey to her conflicting emotions, Eileen hesitated there on the jail steps, then waited for her husband.

He drew near, his arms filled with packages and a certain apology in his manner as he indicated them.

"Just a few things for Bob," he explained.

There was a vague aloofness about Eileen as she regarded him. It was thoughtful of him to remember Bob, to think of his comfort. He loves him, too, said that wee small voice within her. Yet swiftly her heart grew cold as steel. If he loved Bob, how could he prosecute him, hold him imprisoned in that horrid place of cheerless cells, of clanging metal doors and bars, steel bars. She shivered at the thought of them.

"I can stay but a moment," he went on. "If you care to remain I can run you out home on my way back to the office."

Eileen decided to wait, and, seating herself in the car, fell to thinking. First of Bob, then of her big hands. How swift had been the change in her feelings towards him. Yesterday he had been all in all to her; today—she did not know. Ob- livious to everything about her, she sat there wondering.

Thus it was that she did not perceive the approach of Jerome Wallace's car. Nor for that matter did Wallace himself become aware of her presence until, having parked his own machine, he descended and started to cross the sidewalk. Then he paused, clearly surprised to see her there. But not for long. Too resourceful was Wallace to be at loss over a course of conduct for any extended length of time. "As goodly as he had but this minute caught sight of a friend with whom he was on terms of the closest intimacy, Wallace made for the Mannering car.

Deep in somber thought, her face pale and weary from loss of sleep and anxiety, Eileen was leaning back in the seat with her eyes closed as Wallace drew near.

For a second he paused, peering in at her, drinking in her beauty. Then bold as brass he stepped up to the door.

"Why, Eileen, how do you do?" She opened her eyes and stared at him, startled at his presence and amazed at the familiarity of his address. Then swiftly came the remembrance of his illness.

Without a word she turned to gaze into the distance with unseeing eyes.

He did not flinch under this cold reception; instead, with an impulsiveness unusual in a man of his poise and reserve, he threw open the door of the car.

"Eileen," he burst forth as if driven by overwhelming sympathy. "I know of your trouble and I would gladly be of service to you if I could. Isn't there something, some little thing, that I could do for you?"

Amidst her suspicions, it seemed to Eileen that not only was there warmth in his tones, but that sincerity rested in his face. Could she have been mistaken about Wallace? Was the friendship he professed the disinterested regard of an honorable man? Very lonely and for long had Eileen felt since her break with her husband. She needed sympathy, encouragement, help—yes, help from any source which would benefit Bob.

He seemed to sense something of the drift of her feelings and it gave a new direction to his words.

"Because fate has seen fit to array me against your husband in the face of District Attorney Mannering, I have no feeling of outlandishness on any part. The nomination came to me undesired and unsolicited. To one who realized as fully as I the enormity in which your husband is held in this community it has partaken somewhat of the nature of a forlorn hope."

Into his words was creeping a greater warmth.

"I tell you frankly, Eileen, the thought of being District Attorney has meant little to me—that is, until this moment. Now, for the first time, I realize the power of the office and recognize what it would enable me to do for you and your son."

Eileen's heart leaped and her coldness departed. Were not these the words of a friend? Of a true friend who, seeing eye to eye with her, recognized what would benefit Bob?

But even as she changed, he changed. Wallace, appearing to regret his impulsiveness, grew cold, polite.

"After all, it is very stupid of me to go on talking in any such strain," he declared. "Doubtless your husband will be re-elected, and who could do more for you than he? Who could do more for a son than his own father?"

Tells Women to Avoid "Physics"

AT AGES

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated women and girls had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half-sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all headaches, biliousness, sallow skin, indigestion and stomach misery, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" every little while was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which regulates the bowels. A single dose will establish natural, healthy bowel movement for weeks at a time, even for those chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all it is often months before another dose is necessary. Besides it is absolutely harmless and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, sick child gladly takes it.

The New Vitamine Concentrate

Users of Coco Cod
Testify to the marvelous benefits from this NEW Vitamine Concentrate.

"I was in a run-down condition and took three bottles of Coco Cod which helped me very much—so much so that I have advised friends to take it, and they did so with good results."—Harry S. Orr, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Coco Cod put me back in the 'top' class after I had been feeling over-worked, tired and nervous for some time. It has my hearty endorsement."—Chas. Evans, 204 Thornhill St., Xenia, Ohio.

"A stubborn cough that remained after my attack of grippe was easily cured by Coco Cod. It also added several pounds to my weight in a few weeks. I have recommended Coco Cod to two or three friends, who need it."—Wm. Simonton, Virginia Hotel, Columbus, Ohio.

"I had no idea that a tonic could act so promptly as Coco Cod did in my case. I lost my appetite and my usual liking for work. Thanks to Coco Cod I had both back in two weeks."—Stephen Apted, Monadnock Block, Chicago, Ill.

"Anyone who needs staying power, stronger blood and added strength can get them by taking Coco Cod. I did it myself."—Chas. Mondary, E. N. R. R., Cincinnati, Ohio.

When doctors prescribe Cod Liver Oil as a vitalizing tonic or body builder—take Coco-Cod

To pure Cod Liver Oil recognized and recommended generally by the medical profession as nerve-strengthening, blood-vitalizing and body-building, have been added A, B, C and D vitamins—vitamines gleaned from the hearts of lettuce and cabbage, spinach, egg yolks, rice, yeast and vegetables. This then is flavored with chocolate, America's favorite.

The result is Coco-Cod, which feeds sinewy strength and energy into blood and nerves—and promises an alert Nation, vigorous in mind and body.

Thus you have cod liver oil, a favored tonic and the four essential vitamins to the system, in an amazingly palatable form.

And you have a preparation particularly effective in undernourishment, which is so prevalent among school children.

Through Coco-Cod, youth will find a new power to resist infectious dangers—a new virility to meet the world and carry on to success. And age will discover how to turn back the years.

Know the true enjoyment of life—the awareness of energy pulsating throughout your body; the consciousness of a mind, keenly alert at all times—through Coco-Cod, the Cod Liver Oil that's really good to take.

NEWSPAPER ADS ARE BEST EXPERT TELLS COLUMBUS AD CLUB

Columbus, Oct. 8.—"Newspaper advertising starts people thinking more quickly than any other type of advertising," declared Charles W. Myers, director of trade relations of Armour and Co., Chicago, yesterday before the first noonday meeting of the Advertising Club of Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Myers asserted that the big idea in making the buyer buy is to familiarize him with what is for sale. "Every type of commodity and service has a special kind of appeal, and the seller who knows how to use that appeal is the one who attains the greatest success in his business."

"The advertiser must know his merchandise, markets and mediums," Mr. Myers stated. "Advertising men were warned not to try to tell everything in one advertisement. Advertising should be thorough or the buyer will not be reached," he said.

The desire to possess through the advertiser's ability to describe, were declared to be the prime factors in making the buyer buy. "Know all there is to know about your goods, where they are made, how they are made, and why they are made as they are, locate your audience, tell them and sell them," was Mr. Myers' summarization of the answer to the question, "What makes the buyer buy?"

PRIZES FOR SCRIBES TO FEATURE MEETING

Two Major Advantages Studebaker Alone Offers

1-One-Profit Value 2-Unit-Built Construction

THERE are (as you probably know) only two manufacturers who actually build their cars complete — make all their own bodies, engines, clutches, steering gears, differentials, springs, gear sets, axles, gray iron castings and drop forgings.

One of these is Ford—in the low priced field. The other is Studebaker in the fine car field.

Because we eliminate the extra profits and overhead that many other manufacturers have to pay to outside parts and body makers—we are able to use finer materials and workmanship—yet charge no more than competing cars.

But there is another side to One-Profit manufacture—a feature that no careful buyer can afford to overlook.

Under this One-Profit policy the entire car is designed, engineered and manufactured as a complete, coordinate harmonious unit in Studebaker plants. Being Unit-Built it functions as a unit. And this adds years to its life—gives you scores of thousands of miles of excess transportation—greater riding comfort—minimum repair costs—and, finally, higher resale value.

Examine the Standard Six Coach closely—make detailed comparisons with other cars—and you will understand the full meaning of One-Profit value.

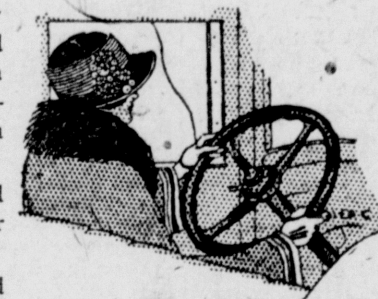

A Coach of quality

It is called a coach only because it is the lowest priced closed car ever sold by Studebaker. But it is a quality car through and through.

Do not buy this coach with the expectation that you'll have to trade it in at the end of a year or so. It's not a one-year car.

Instead, it has been honestly built to give you scores of thousands of miles of dependable service.

Notice the durable wool upholstery. See the heavy ornamental hardware; the plate glass windows and windshield; the fine trim to hide all tacks; the clock and gasoline gauge on dash; automatic windshield cleaner; stop light; locks on ignition, steering gear, door and spare-tire carrier—all operated by a single key.

The steering mechanism is especially designed for easy driving with the big balloon tires

These are all features that you can easily see. But down underneath that glistening coat of metallic enamel you'll find the same quality of materials and workmanship that are out in the open.

The sturdy frame for the body is built from the fine northern ash and hard maple. Slam the door and the sound says quality. Underneath the upholstery you'll find two layers of washed, quilted cotton, one layer of genuine curled hair and extra long springs closely curled together by small coil springs. This is the identical cushion and seat construction used in the highest priced cars.

Long resilient springs made of special chrome Vanadium steel give greater buoyancy and protection from road shocks.

The crankshaft is completely machined on all surfaces to eliminate vibration. And the motor is the most powerful in any car of this size and weight, according to the rating of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. It is a motor built for smooth, trouble-free service at 5 to 55 miles an hour—not for excessive speed or spectacular stunts.

The body is smart in appearance — yet provides ample room to seat five passengers in real comfort. Ample room to enter or leave without disturbing occupant of folding seat.

Make comparisons before you buy

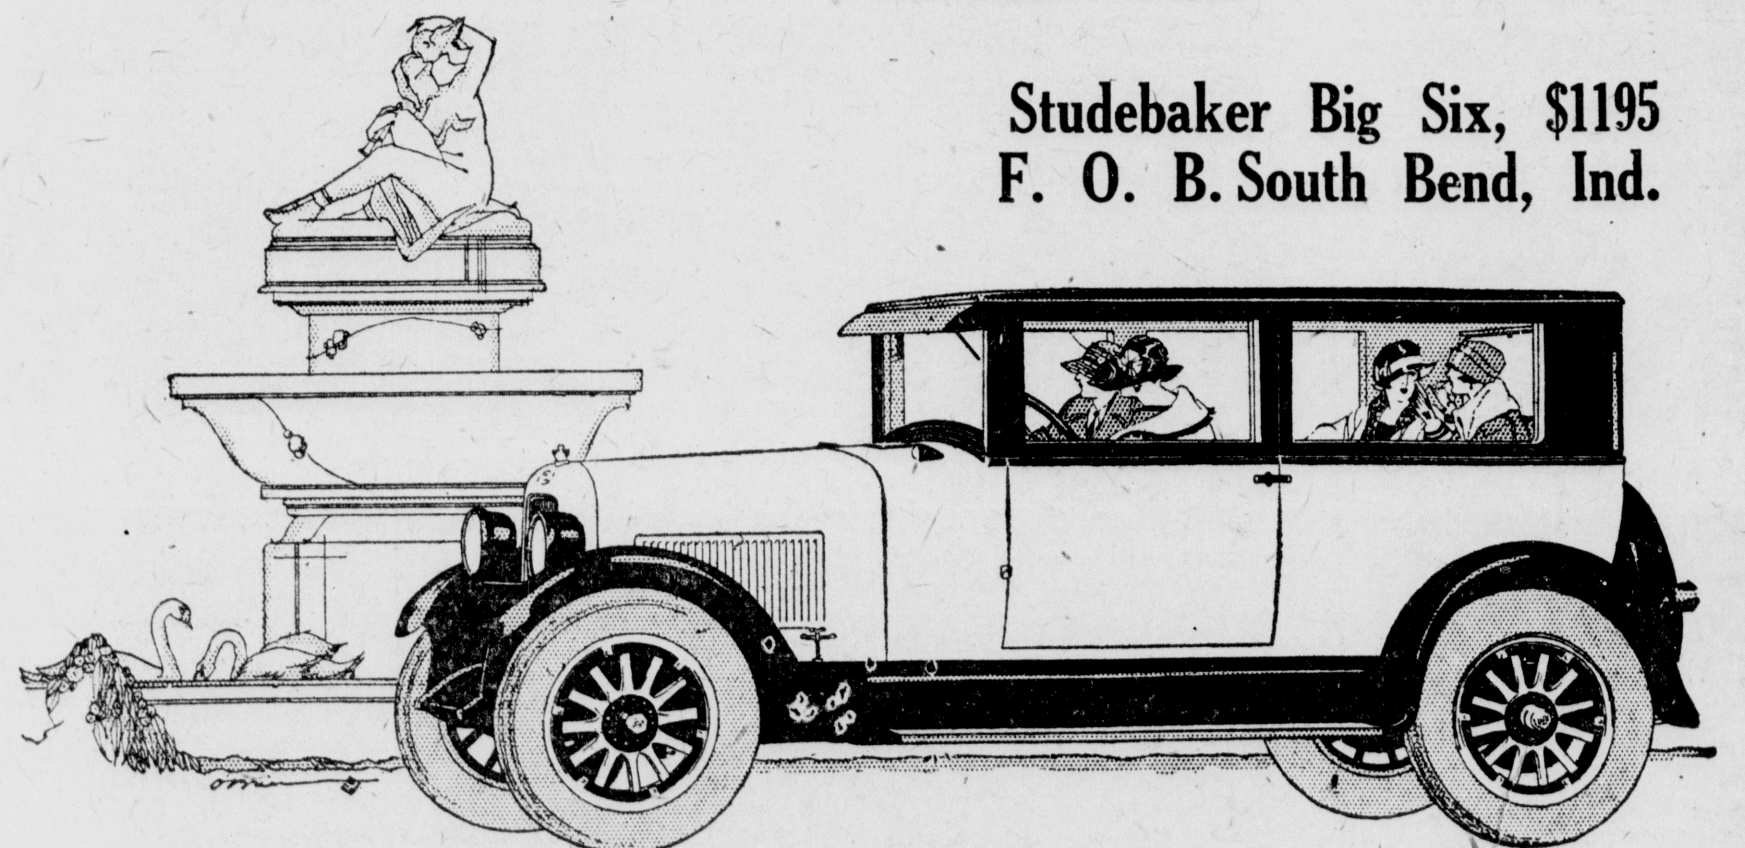

These are advantages made possible by One-Profit manufacture. Check them off point by point—in comparison with other coaches.

Only after you have seen this One-Profit Studebaker with its Unit-Built construction, will you realize why it offers a value that cannot be obtained in any other car. It is the automobile equivalent of Pullman transportation.

The Studebaker policy of "no yearly models" is a further protection to owners. Under this policy Studebaker cars are always up to date—we add improvements from time to time and do not save them up for spectacular annual announcements which make cars artificially obsolete.

Come in—let us demonstrate the Standard Six Coach without obligation on your part.

The HUMPHREY Radiantfire

Clean Heat at a Moment's Notice

In the best modern homes, you will find Humphrey Radiantfire installations in bed chambers as well as living rooms. Nothing could be more logical because all the terrors of chilly mornings are immediately banished. You can then sleep in a cold bracing atmosphere at night and rise to dress in tropical warmth.

The Radiantfire burns natural or manufactured gas in a new and scientific way without a suggestion of odor. It is ready for service at the stroke of a match and can be installed in a fireplace or any corner of a room. As a coal saver it is without equal. See the complete line of period models and portables today.

"IF IT'S HEAT YOU WANT YOU CAN DO IT BETTER WITH GAS—IT'S CLEANER"

RESTAURANT SOLD TO CANDY KITCHEN OWNERS WEDNESDAY

Sale of the New Manhattan Restaurant, North Detroit Street, by John Mendenhall, to John, James and Charles Malavazos, was consummated Wednesday.

John and James Malavazos are interested in the operation of The Xenia Candy Kitchen, East Main Street. Charles Malavazos, formerly of Xenia, came here after selling out his Victory Confectionery in Washington C. H.

The new owners will take possession of the restaurant November 1 and will immediately close it for a period of six weeks or two months while extensive remodeling is done. They expect to install a soda fountain, cigar counter and candy counter in the front of the restaurant.

Present counters and tables will be taken out, and booths, similar to those in use at the Xenia Candy Kitchen, but larger, will be installed and the room re-decorated. Mirrors will be paneled in each booth. Operation will be similar to that of the Xenia Candy Kitchen with the exception that short orders will be available as well as regular meals on Sundays.

There will be no change in the manner of operation of the Xenia Candy Kitchen, which will continue to be managed by John and James Malavazos while Charles Malavazos will be manager of the new restaurant. While the remodeling is being conducted, the new owners will conduct a contest, offering a prize for the best name suggested for the new restaurant.

The Manhattan became the New Manhattan Restaurant about seven years ago when it was remodelled by Tom and Christ Volousopoulos and Nick Pappas. Later Nick Pappas owned it solely, and it passed into the hands of John Mendenhall in a forced sale about two years ago. He has since operated it and in selling out, will confine his attention to his grocery on East Main Street.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB WILL MOVE TO ROOM IN DAKIN BUILDING

The Greene County Automobile Club will vacate its present quarters in the Orpheum Theater Building, Main and Whiteman Streets, which it has occupied two years, about November 1, and establish permanent offices in the Dakin Building, North Detroit Street, in the room formerly occupied by the Xenia Herald. It is announced by Secretary Diver Belden.

Plans for the change in location were completed at a meeting of the board of directors of the organization Tuesday night, it is revealed.

A three-year lease on the Dakin rooms has been obtained and also an additional option for two years.

The decision to locate elsewhere was made following requests of a majority of members that business offices be established on a ground floor.

The Dakin rooms will be entirely remodeled into modern business offices providing for the main office and waiting room and additional comfort rooms.

Members of the Auto Club have occupied offices in the Orpheum Building since organization of the club October 2, 1923. The new offices are conveniently located.

Present offices in the Orpheum Building owned by Henry L. Binder will be used for office space, it is understood.

Officials of the auto club will be able to furnish additional service to patrons and auto license plates will probably be dispensed as usual from the new location, it is announced.

BOULEVARD LIGHT QUESTION NOT TO COME BEFORE BODY

Nothing but routine business and formal approving of monthly bills will confront the City Commission at its regular meeting at the City Hall Thursday night, according to City Manager S. O. Hale.

The boulevard light project of the Kiwanis Club for the main business section of the city will probably not be placed before the Commission Thursday. Final reports of the canvass of merchants on Main and Detroit Streets is not yet completed and Kiwanians are anxious to make the sentiment 100 percent in favor of the proposal before the Commission is asked to pass an ordinance placing the system in effect.

More than the required seventy-five percent of merchants and property owners have signified their approval of the plan but a unanimous approval is sought.

The canvass is expected to be completed before the next regular commission meeting in two weeks.

GENERAL SHERWOOD DANGEROUSLY ILL

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 8.—Gen. Isaac Sherwood, 90, one of the oldest congressmen alive was near death today from senility and anaemia, according to physicians who have maintained a 24-hour vigil at the aged man's bedside.

Due to General Sherwood's age, death is but a matter of days, physicians declared.

The former congressman has failed to respond to treatment and is slowly sinking. General Sherwood, a Civil War Veteran, first entered congress in 1872. He retired last year, his last official public pronouncement being a scathing arraignment of prohibition on the floor of the house Jan. 15, 1924.

MAIL AUTHORITIES HOPE FOR DEFINITE REPORTS ON FLYER

Buzzard Flocks May Indicate Presence of Missing Flyer

Sharon, Pa., Oct. 8.—Charles Ames, missing Cleveland air mail pilot, is reported to have been found dead by searchers at Harrisville.

Clarion, Pa., Oct. 8.—Before darkness tonight air mail authorities feel they will have definite reports that will lead to solving the mystery of the disappearance of Charles Ames, Cleveland, air mail pilot.

Where the eyes of men have failed to pierce the thickness of the forests here, the eyes of nature's own flyers were today expected to lead searchers to Ames' body.

As Lieutenant Blessley, one of the army pilots here assisting in the search came in from his last flight yesterday he reported he had noticed flocks of buzzards circling over a thick patch of woods three miles north of Kennerdell.

This was the first sight of these birds of prey in any numbers in this region since Ames disappeared.

Experienced woodsmen told Mail Supt. C. F. Erge that the presence of so many buzzards mean that their exceptionally keen eyes had located animal matter from which life had fled.

Three times Lieut. Blessley said he frightened the birds from one particular patch of woods and each time they returned to their grim vigil.

The woodsmen believe Ames is pinned beneath his ship so that the birds cannot reach him but that their strange sixth sense has located him.

All search for Ames was concentrated on this particular section of woods today.

Notified by rural mail carriers that rewards totaling $1,000 would be paid to the person finding Ames, thousands of mountaineers and farmers were out scouring the mountains.

PERSHING BOOMED FOR LEGION CHIEF

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 8.—Gen. John J. Pershing, was boomed for National Commander of the American Legion today by the Missouri delegation to the national legion convention in session here.

The Missourians cabled Pershing who is in South America, asking him to accept. The boom for the former commander of the A. E. F. in the world war was greeted warmly by other delegations. Election of a national commander takes place tomorrow.

Does Your Back Ache?

Bad Backs Bring Suffering to Many Xenia Folks.

Is that dull, constant backache making you old and miserable? Does your back throb and ache until it seems you just can't keep going? Do you suffer headaches, dizzy spells and urinary disorders; feel weak, tired and worn-out? Then look to your kidneys. Delay may mean serious kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's are recommended by Xenia folks.

J. F. Mella, shoemaker, 426 W. Second St., Xenia, says: "My back ached constantly and every time I stooped, I got a stab of pain through it and it was hard to straighten. Mornings I dreaded to get up, I was so stiff and lame. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Pills cured the backache and my kidneys again became normal."

SCHOOL FIRE DRILLS HELD FOR NATIONAL PREVENTION WEEK

Public schools in Xenia are carefully observing National Fire Prevention Week this week by frequent fire drills as a safeguard against sudden fires, according to Superintendent H. C. Pendry.

Students of Central High School participated in their first fire drill Wednesday morning and vacated the building in the remarkably short time of one minute and forty-five seconds. Other drills will be held during the week at different class periods to acquaint students of both Junior and Senior high schools with the regulations, according to Principal Spencer Shank.

No speeches are scheduled for this week, but students will probably be addressed by a state speaker next week when a party of inspectors from the state fire marshal's office in Columbus is expected to arrive in Xenia for the annual inspection of buildings for fire hazards. It is said, Fire Chief T. B. Claire, declares fire waste is a problem which affects the entire country, but differs from many other so called national problems, in that it must be treated locally.

ALBERTINE RANDALL

"CAP" STUBBS—It Was A Good Record Once!

By EDWINA

NOAH WEBSTER, JACK WILLETT AND
BILL McCALLISTER

Decide On What "BEST" Means!
Here's Noah's Definition of the Word "Best";

"Best"—Excelling all others, most advantageous, desirable or serviceable for the purpose. Most, largest, most excellent, highest degree or state.

Mack and Jack have been arguing back and forth for a week now trying to find just ONE WORD which would properly describe what kind of a hardware store the Greene County Hardware Company runs.

They finally went over to the Library and got a copy of Dictionary, one of Mr. Webster's latest novels, and after wandering through the pages for couple days they discovered the word BEST! All present agreed it was THE word to express G. C. H. Co.

So from now on the Greene County Hardware Company will always refer to itself as the BEST Hardware Co. in the County.

When pressed for three good reasons for using this odd, unusual and unique title, Jack spoke as follows:

(1) We give the BEST SERVICE to our customers at all times of day and night.

(2) We have not only the BIGGEST STOCK of goods in the county but also the BEST.

(3) We have both the LARGEST and the BEST PARTS DEPARTMENT in a couple states.

Mack was equally modest when asked for HIS three reasons, blushing furiously as he replied:

(1) We always have made it a rule here to employ only the BEST looking men in five counties.

(2) We have the two BEST SERVICE men in the entire world, men who can take any nut, bolt, screw, shackle or hootnanny EVER manufactured by the McCormick-Deering folks and make it holler "Uncle"! The name of these champs are Ed Norman and Charley Bales.

(3) No one ever heard an unkind word spoken within the confines of this store! Nothing but the BEST language is ever used.

And so it was decided.

Ed Schauers over at Port William, bought a Corn Picker, which he intends to make pay for itself before November 15th on the 90 acres of land he's got in corn. He'll do same and make money besides. (Cut this out for your scrapbook.)

The Sutton Twins, if backed in a corner and calmed down, will confess that this has been the best year of auto business they ever had! If you can get them to TELL how many cars they've sold, you will at once understand why they're generally found in a cloud of dust! Nice folks, the Sutton Twins.

Mr. Jack Willett raised his hand for attention and when recognized, remarked: "It's an odd thing but it's a fact that the men who once GET a job with Greene County Hardware NEVER want to quit! (Referred to a committee)

Shanty Says:

Don't Jack and Mack remind you of a little group of timid, violets peeping out from a row of haughty, violent sunflowers? Just don't they now? Especially when Mack chirps up about the BEST LOOKING MEN!

And did you note what Jack gave out? About how the fellers who got a job here never quit? Jack didn't tell you WHY, did he? No! Well, here it is:

Take me, frinstance. I've been wanting to go to New York to the Style Show all last month but when I asked Jack for a raise so I could ride there part way did I get it? Did I?

And I know PERSONALLY that Mack is nearly starved for lack of deer and bear meat, but can he get Jack to coff 'up fare to Maine? Can he?

I had another remark to make but space is quit.

WALKER WON'T GIVE SHADE RETURN BOUT SAYS BUD FARRELL

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

New York, Oct. 8.—"You go and bet all the real estate in Florida that it will take Dave Shade just as long to get another fight with Mickey Walker as it did to get the first one— if he ever does get another one," an intimate friend of Jack Kearns, Walker's manager, said a few days ago.

It took Shade two years to get into the ring with Walker and re- quired the maximum of official pres- sure to defend his white weight title against the California chal- lenger and it does not require infor- mation from such a reliable source to predict that Shade never will get a return bout.

Walker is too careful and his man- ager is too shrewd to take another chance with Shade after the narrow escape they had from losing the only valuable title now on the market.

Walker made a whirlwind finish in that fight and many good judges, such as William Muldoon, veteran boxing commissioner, thought that Shade won.

Shade's failure to win the cham- pionship was due primarily to the decision of the referee and one of the judges that Walker had won, but some smart boxing men blame Leo Flynn, Shade's manager, for allow- ing Walker to take the fight away from Shade in the fifteenth round.

Several reliable fans, who were sit- ting in the front row near Shade's corner, said they heard Flynn tell Shade before the bell for the fif- teenth round to go out and play safe and take no chances.

"You've got the decision in the bag now," Flynn was reported to have said. "Don't take any chances now."

Shade played safe and took no chances from all appearances, and Walker came out with a desperate last-minute attack, so furious that it must have blotted out the recollec- tion of the earlier rounds in the minds of the two officials, although one of the judges voted for Shade.

The arguments about the decision get no place, however, unless those who thought so wrote that Shade was entitled to the decision get some sat- isfaction out of the discussion to vin- dicate their own judgment.

The writer picked Walker to win before the fight and yet he thought that Shade won the fight by a score of at least ten to five, if points can be scored that way.

Bowling

Rolling in midseason form, the Dice Bros. five amassed the remarkable three-game total of 2,772 and easily took three straight games from the Criterion in a match in the Xenia Bowling League Tuesday night.

The Dice Bros. team gave a specta- cular exhibition rolling more than 900 in each game. Arch Jeffries, anchor man for the winners, was mainly re- sponsible for the large totals although the entire team rolled well. Jeffries accumulated a three game total of 659, bowling more than 200 in each game. Box scores:

RE-BUILD GREENS AT COUNTRY CLUB

Ground was broken at the Xenia Country Club this week for re- construction work on the golf course. It is planned to construct new, mod- ern greens and improve the entire course.

The work is in charge of Alec Campbell of the Miami Valley Coun- try Club and Jeffries and Fudge, local contractors, are doing the work. The extent of the work to be done has not been outlined.

Health Hints by the Father of Physical Culture

BERNARD MACPADDEN

The problem of selecting whole- some and nourishing bread and at the same time gratifying one's particular taste is by no means un- important. Bread is said to be the staff of life. It is looked upon as an important adjunct to a meal. Many persons cannot eat a meal without bread, no matter what they may be eating, bread forms part of the repast. For instance, bread and potatoes or bread and meat are eaten together, and if the meal is continued on to desert and the ap- petite is not satisfied, it is not at all unusual for one to eat bread even with the desert. Under such circumstances, it is easy to under- stand the very great importance of selecting the right kind of bread.

The table of the average home, in most instances, is supplied with white bread made from the bolted white flour of wheat. When white bread is not used, hot biscuits or rolls made from the same flour, serve as a substitute. Now, this bread is a delusion and a snare. It is nothing more or less than a pre- tense. It is supposed to be rich in nourishment and to be capable of supporting health and life, but this supposition is absolutely false. To be sure, it contains a large amount of starch, much larger in proportion than whole wheat bread, but you must remember that there has been removed from the flour used to make this bread the organized salts which really constitute the life of the food—one might call it the vital element. This is found largely in what is termed the germ of the wheat, and the germ of the wheat is removed with the bran in bolted white flour. It is cast aside as worthless for human food. In the bran that is removed from this bread there are also found elements that provide nourishment for the muscles and bones for the body.

Those who rely upon white flour as their principal article of diet, in nearly all cases have bad teeth, and have frequent need for the dentist. Their teeth have been actually starved. The blood is not supplied with the elements needed to nourish the teeth. Where one uses the products of white flour and mixes with them large variety of other foods, the deficiencies of the white flour may not be especially noticed.

CAPTURE TWO RUM RUNNERS ON LAKE

Cleveland, O., Oct. 8.—Two rum runners captured in their speedboat which contained $20,000 worth of liquor on Lake Erie off Huron, O., shortly before dawn were brought to Cleveland for arraignment before Federal officials today.

The men, Orville McCormick, Pelee Island, Ont., and Dewey Wads- worth, Port Clinton, O., gave battle with revolvers until they were seized.

In their speed boat "Ranger" they tried to run a blockade established between Vermillion and Sandusky.

East guard cutters located their boat and captured the men and con- fiscated the cargo of 650 cases of assorted liquors.

Everywhere Hudson is known as the World's Greatest Buy

That is not alone because of its selling price. The value is in performance, endurance and low operating cost. Such quali- ties are outstanding long after the price is forgotten.

Hudson prices are lowest because tremendous volume has made possible economical methods of manufacture. The world's largest production of Sixes—Hudson and Essex—opens economies that are not possible in a smaller production.

Through increase of quality, greater sales result and volume economies that permit lower prices. There you have the reason for Hudson's leadership in value, in price, in sales.

It explains why Hudson with the patented Super-Six principle has distinctive smoothness, long life, wide performance range, and why every Hudson owner is so enthusiastic.

There can be no better proof that Hudson is the World's Greatest Value than what owners say for it and that its sales leadership continues as it has now for years, the outstanding success of motordom. It is the

It Melts Freckles Away In 4 Days OR YOUR MONEY BACK

Sayre and Hemphill was one of the first to learn that a clever chem- ist had at last discovered a real freckle remover—one that dissolves the brown pigment so that freckles actually melt away.

And when the unsightly spots have all gone what a difference in the texture of the skin—as soft as the finest velvet and clear and clean and youth- ful looking.

This new discovery is a cream and is called Flyte. It is easy to apply and never stains. Sayre and Hem- phill and every forward-looking drug- gist sells it and if it fails the pur- chase price will be returned—Ask for a jar of Flyte.—Adv.

OUTLINE PROGRAMS WHEN SCHOOL CHIEFS- IN SESSION TUESDAY

Organized lines of school management in Greene County were drawn by superintendents and executives of the county in session in the office of County Superintendent H. C. Aultman, Tuesday afternoon.

Superintendents and executives present included: H. E. Zuber, Bath; W. W. White, Beaver Creek; H. L. Sams, Caesar Creek; C. E. Oxley, Cedarville; C. C. Echman, Clinton; J. W. Gowdy, Jamestown; P. C. Milnor, Jefferson; A. F. Roush, Ross; A. W. Drewes, Spring Valley; R. S. Weaver, Sugar Creek; and O. E. Barr, Yellow Springs.

A program of curriculum building was outlined and the following committees appointed: reading, language and spelling, D. H. Barnes, A. W. Drewes and P. C. Milnor; arithmetic, H. E. Zuber and O. E. Barr; history, A. F. Roush and C. E. Oxley; geography, J. W. Gowdy and W. W. White; hygiene, H. L. Sams and C. E. Oxley; agriculture, H. E. Zuber and A. F. Roush.

These courses will be built up, necessitating no change of text books, allowing any to be used.

The matter of attendance was placed in the hands of various superintendents and executives, as in previous years, until it is necessary for action to be taken by the attendance officer.

After the adjournment of the superintendents' meeting, the County Athletic Association met, represented by the same school officials. A re-organization was effected, resulting in County Superintendent Aultman being elected president, C. E. Oxley, vice president; J. W. Gowdy, secretary and H. E. Zuber, treasurer.

The eligibility committee will be composed of H. L. Sams, chairman, W. W. White and A. F. Roush. The same county and state rules as last year were adopted for the season.

ST. LAWRENCE CANAL PROJECT IS URGED K WHILE U. S. AND CANADA AWAIT SURVEY

Washington, Oct. 8—Grain and produce exporters of the northwest are bringing great pressure to bear on the American and Canadian governments in favor of the development of the St. Lawrence deep waterways project.

The governments of the two countries are awaiting the report of the joint committee of engineers which has been sent to make a complete survey of the situation. The report will not be considered before next spring when national committees meet to discuss the merits of the proposed link between the Great Lakes and the Atlantic ocean.

Meanwhile a complete survey of canals all over the world is being made by the Department of Commerce to determine the relative importance of such a project.

Opposition to the development has been met from railroads and other inland carriers who will feel the effect which such a project will have on their freight business. Both governments have been forced from time to time to meet propaganda against the development.

Replying to a charge that the Canadian government had decided to drop its participation in the project, George P. Graham, minister of railways and canals, said, "There is no truth in the report whatever. The whole situation is merely held up pending the report of the surveying experts."

Proponents of the project point out the tremendous savings to shippers by the use of the St. Lawrence route. Development of the St. Lawrence project will add from seven to nine cents to the interior net price of wheat and will add to the prices of other commodities accordingly, it is said.

Incoming cargoes in full ship loads would benefit the farming districts reaching from the territory west of the Alleghany mountains to the cotton belt and north into the extensive regions of the Northwest, it is claimed.

Fertilizers, it is pointed out, are now almost prohibitively expensive throughout the Northwest due to the additional cost of reshipment from the Atlantic seaboard. Through the operation of the project ocean-going steamers could carry full cargoes to the interior ports and return to the sea with full cargoes of the products of the adjacent regions.

Wisconsin, generally well balanced between agriculture and manufacturing, is handicapped through the lack of coal and oil.

The industries of this state will benefit considerably by the elimination of the present rail haul of 1,000 to 1,500 miles with the added delay of transfer at Atlantic ports, it is said.

More than 94 per cent of the ships entering and leaving the port of New York could make use of the inland route, it is stated.

Desire of the Ford Motor Company to make use of this cheaper route to the outside world is indicated in the recent initial shipment of 1,100 trucks and tractors to the new $12,000,000 Ford assembling plant in Australia. It is said that practically all of the seaboard traffic of the Ford Company would go out by this route if the St. Lawrence was developed to accommodate ocean going liners.

While the canal will divert some of the freight traffic from the North Atlantic ports, it is pointed out that the relief in congestion at these points will compensate for the trade lost to the carriers.

CINCINNATI NOW HAS FAMOUS RUBENS

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 8—There is a Rubens in Cincinnati.

E. D. Edwards returned from Europe bearing with him a canvas by the famous Belgian which is said to be worth $50,000. It is two by three feet and portrays Ajax and Cassandra.

Edwards is adding it to his private collection.

NEW AUTO DESIGNED TO RUN BY PRESSURE

Lansing, Oct. 8—Inventors are seeking a factory site here for building an automobile of revolutionary design operated by oil pressure.

Gears, driving shafts and brakes are to be replaced by oil pipes. A gasoline motor operates the system, creating oil pressure which is used to run independent driving motors on each of the rear wheels.

Necessity for brakes is eliminated by mechanism to reverse the direction of flow of the oil pressure.

The inventors claim the machine is practical and can be operated with greater efficiency than the ordinary type of motor vehicle.

Announcement of the proposed factory was made by the Lansing Chambers of Commerce. Details of the organization have not been learned.

Miracle Claimed As Farmer, After Praying for Three Days, Sees Again

William R. Davis, 69, Netcong, N. J. farmer, prompted, he avers, by a vision of a dead son, prayed three days in a cornfield for recovery of his sight. Then, he declares, his right eye allowed him to see the light of day again. An explosion 21 years ago put out the left eye. The right failed him in 1918. "A miracle!" say awed neighbors. Physicians, discrediting the supernatural, say that evidently the eye was not permanently injured.

SINGS ON RAILS SO TRAIN IS STOPPED

Toledo, O., Oct. 8—Patrick Hogan, 45, no home, was sitting on the tracks of the Nickel Plate railroad, singing at the top of his voice. Detectives Hovey, Fitzgerald and Wagner, passing, stopped a train until the man could be pulled from the tracks. "Don't you know you nearly got killed?" Hovey asked Hogan. "I've just saved your life."

"I've a good mind to bust you on the nose," Hogan replied. Hogan was locked up for being drunk and disorderly.
